Meet Your Camp Leader

Jen Leon has been teaching at The Paideia School in Atlanta, GA since 2004. She teaches primarily math as well as classes in human rights, robotics, and neurodiversity. Jen holds a Ph.D in Mathematics Education with an emphasis in Instructional Technology. Additionally, as the parent of a young autistic child, Jen has developed a passion for promoting access to high quality education for others like him. On the side, Jen enjoys tutoring students with a range of communication and motor difference and has experience working with students who communicate by spelling.
